

WHAT IS INVOLVED IN THIS DJWHAL KHUL STUDY GROUP?

The EGA will provide a Website Link to the Study Material before the Study begins. You download one per day or all 10 for the duration of the Study. It shall be a 10-day Study period that shall require around one hour per day whereby you simply say a Prayer to Invoke the Energies of the Day, Shamballa, Hierarchy and Humanity. The Prayer and Invocation will be provided as a guideline, however, you are free to create your own if you wish. Each day at a time of your choosing, preferably the same time every day, you then read and then write in a notebook provided by you. We suggest that this notebook be large enough to be able to continue the study into and through the 13 consecutive Rules that shall be a different Course beginning around 2 weeks after the end of Rule 1. The notebook therefore should contain around 180 pages, lined both sides (around 360 in total). This 10 day course has an average of 1 and a half pages of text to read or write, per day. The follow-on of the 2 to 14 Rules Study has 144 days on the same average. Past experiences have proven by far, that doing this as a writing exercise will have far more expanded results as opposed to just reading. But it will be the choice of each individual.

This shall be an Individual Inner physical experience. However if you have any questions, queries or need any assistance throughout the Course, there will be Dear Souls from the EGA who will answer you email/s. These is another Element to this Study. You will also be Uniting as a Group within the Etheric Realms offering an additional Level or Dimensions to Study. This will help all Energetically as they all move closer to the Manifestation of the New Ashramic Groups of Divine Synthesis.

Further Instructions will be sent to all those Participating in this Study Group prior to the commencement 17th June 2023.

The Study is free of charge and is intended "for educational purposes only". However, if you wish to make a kind 'Love Gift' donation as part of the Exchange of Energies, then your voluntary gift toward the EGA non-profit administration activities, will always be gratefully and graciously received.
