

NARAYANA AND DIVINE GRACE - THE ELEMENTAL GRACE ALLIANCE COUNCIL –
PETER 21ST NOVEMBER, 2015

Beloved and Esteemed Members of this Alliance and All Blessed Brothers and Sisters of the Light, I am both Humbled and Honoured by the support that I am being given to bring this Single Idea that God has Bestowed upon me, to assist in the reunification of humanity with those of the Higher Realms and Who indeed, include Those Beloved Elementals, Devas and Angelic Host. As the only human representative partaking within these Discourses at this time, I cannot for a moment, really comprehend at any level, what is transpiring here. How is what is being shared, unfolding across the planet or within the realms of humanity, either consciously or unconsciously, energetically speaking? Of course, I can presume to know and indeed I would consider that I am somewhere within the ball park of that Knowing. However, full disclosure for me would be a tremendous help at this time!

As a human being I can only physically see that which is manifesting from a physical perspective, and that My Friends, is not a pretty sight to behold. Indeed, it is a very deep and emotional wrench within my Heart where the hope for salvation is very bleak indeed. How can humanity on their own rise above all this chaos, murder, terror and self-destruction, that is so ripe across the planet today? As many are aware, last Friday, November 13th of 2015 and since that time, there has been even more mass attacks of terrorism upon the people of the world, within Paris, France and Bamako, Mali. There is a growing and an expanding reign of confusion, fear and uncertainty for many Peaceful and Loving Souls. Yet within The Heart of My I Am Presence, I Know the Truth of what is transpiring, and I do what I can to stay focused in the Light of Truth and detached from the main-stream beliefs and consensus of opinions.

Just the same, how does one look into the eyes of a mother who has just lost her child through indiscriminate bombing and tell her it is an illusion? How do you tell a person that is starving, without a home and in the freezing cold that this is their Karma? How do you give solace to and an answer to their question, why me? There are millions of Souls, who are being raped, tortured, defiled, made to feel like helpless animals, through slavery, poverty and imposed sickness where loss and lack of hope, faith and any human decency is not only ignored, but capitalized upon. How does one say, don't worry it is all not true my friend?

I am human, I don't know how to do this, without feeling their pain, anxiety and hopelessness, yet I can turn my head and walk away leaving them in these states of mine and feelings of physical betrayal and carry on with my life with all the comforts of a life in Trust and Faith. Yet I find the whole situation Soul destroying and it tears at me within my whole being, flowing with these feelings of helplessness, of me not being able to do more than I am! Do you understand this tear within the Hearts of so many who Love Humanity Beyond All Measure, yet cannot see beyond these terrifying acts and inhumanity toward mankind!

I close my eyes and take refuge in My Heart and All is well for me again! I open my eyes once more and listen to the news, and my heart sinks and I want to do what I have come to do, to set these things right! But I am 95% of the time just a human Soul, doing the very best I can while, looking for a way to solve the problems of the world, from within the illusions of myself and itself! It is like I am living two lives, one caught up in all the chaos and that which I need to do on a daily basis to live a normal life, and the other of a Higher Conscious Being with no attachment to what is transpiring around the planet but Working in a way that I KNOW is for the Highest Good of All Concerned.

I Pray That this will change sooner rather than later, where perhaps the ratio is the other way around! I don't have the Over View as the human part, nor stand enlightened by Your Points of Universal Knowing, so my/our hands are tied for now, but our Hearts do carry a Three Fold Flame, of Rose Pink, Golden Sunshine and Heavenly Blue, that one day will Shine with a White Fire Light like a Thousand Suns from within us! I continue to walk toward that day with My Faith and Trust in God.

I would like to say a small Prayer of Gratitude that does help me from falling too far back into human consciousness, to such dramas that are playing themselves out, in these awkward and unnerving times for so many! If I may, I have used the same foundation of the Prayer that Jesus shared from 'A Course in Miracles' within His last Address, but as you will see I have extended and changed it a little, for my own personalized alignment. Bless You!

Father, Our Name is Yours. In it we are United with all living things, with All Life, and You, Who are their One Creator. What we made and call by many different names, is but a shadow that we have tried to cast across Your Own Reality. And we are glad and grateful to You that we were wrong. All our mistakes we thus give back to You, so that they and we, may be absolved from all effects that our errors are sure to have made. And we gratefully accept the Truth You give within our Hearts, in place of every one of our incorrect and inappropriate choices. Your Name is our Salvation, I Am The Salvation of the world in Your Name and in the Name of Jesus The Christ In me, and this is the Resurrection of Our Life, which allows us to escape from what we made. Your Name Unites us in the Oneness which is our Inheritance and Peace. In God's Name We Are Grateful, In God's Name We Are Grateful, In God's Name We Are Grateful. Amen.

Beloved Jesus made reference to this in His last Address also and so I desire to truly make use of His Words to anchor even more deeply within my Heart, yet another key of understanding of what I am using as a theme for this Series of Discourses; 'Narayana and Divine Grace'; for without this comprehension and benevolence to humanity, nothing will be seen more clearly, of that which will allow them to look for their own Salvation and Liberation, from and of that which is outside of their old beliefs and errors in choice. Jesus said;

So, you see Dear Souls, if One could really grasp this message (The Prayer above) with the totality of Their Godliness, then all these Proposals would make no sense at all, nor would they have any reason to continue as part of the human experience. We understand why they are still within the experience of human life, for there is still more to experience while humanity still has not accepted their Freedom through God's Salvation for them. But the more Souls that will join Us within Our Echelon of Conscious Awareness, the quicker God's Peace will come and His Purpose for you Attained, in His Glory!

I also wish to bring to your awareness, within my heart and mind, this whole process that is unfolding within the Elemental Grace Alliance is quite over-whelming, especially for me. I know I am quite aware of many things that are transpiring, but there is so much extremely powerful information being shared here, that to keep abreast and more importantly to understand it through experience, is not an easy undertaking by any means. Simple as it is, in its clarity, the practicalities of it, coming from a human perspective, that has to contend with the very human needs and daily duties that require our attentions and attending to, I mean, wow, is it any wonder it has taken so much time for humanity to just get this far!

Nevertheless, it is here and I am paying very close attention to every word, even though I am having to revise and revise and revise again, to read and re-read everything that is coming forth, to grasp the points fully including that which is also hidden within the texts and which have even greater meaning and depth of Purpose.

One of the most important facets of the Discourses to date for me, is just how far can we go, as unascended human beings, making decisions upon the clearing, healing, removing and eradication of such Proposals without creating vast Karma along the way!

It was Beloved Omega in Her update upon the recent activations regarding the Cascadia Zone Work, who suggested that I and others step up with even Greater Sovereignty. These are Her Words that I share within the Alliance for further clarity and definition if possible.

We encourage you to come forth next time with a much Greater Presence of Sovereignty. If You Call God In, on behalf of God, then God Knows that Nothing Less than God's Will, Will be done. This you cannot override for God does not override God's Own Creations, does this make sense? Make your Demands, and Commands with much more conviction, with much more confidence and assurance. Do not allow any doubt to enter your Decrees or Invocations, for these shall only diminish the results and slow down the Precipitation of Your I Am Presence Desires. Send forth Your Instructions and All That Is God, Will Respond with All His/Her Power, Love and Wisdom, and Know without Doubt that Only the Will of God will Triumph! Do not enter any fear-based paradigms of what is right or wrong, or am I making any mistakes, or do I have the right to do this? If you Act Like Gods then You Are God Expressing God's Desire for your own Individualized Expression of Godhood through you! If you Know, that you are Created in His/Her Image then Think, Speak, Feel and Act like It!

Do you think that We would give you all such Missions within Our Design for this Our Plan, and not allow you to Express the Highest That You Are? Of course not! Just remember the Laws Dear Ones for your Creations will only be in Alignment and Perfection with that of your own levels of Resonance and Vibrational Frequencies; within your own Knowingness and understanding of the Laws that Govern All Prime Creations. That is the only thing We would Admonish as this stage.

I responded to this by sharing; - It was true about what Omega said, for I did feel a little, hmmm, not doubtful as such, but perhaps so, but more what right do I have to step up and beyond the Karmic Conditions of others and their needs karmically for them to redeem themselves through their own life experiences. I am still not quite comfortable about stopping a hurricane or any Earth movements or allowing other atrocities and horrific situations to go untouched by direct Decrees and Invocations to intervene as a human being by use of human perceptions and judgments. I see this happening all over the world by so many who have no way of knowing the Truth of what is transpiring, indeed at any level, for all is not what it seems. I somehow feel that when acting upon unknown information, it is a very dangerous thing to do, where long-term consequences may occur as a result; especially when Higher Knowing does not equate to such actions for such situations.

I still need to fully get to grips with this aspect of 'do I have the right to intervene or do I just become involved with that which is directly within my own awareness and those specific calls from Spirit Who ask for my response?' The refugee situation at present is a typical example. How do I really know whether this is all karma for them or can it be resolved in an Over Lighting way that would immune, exempt, eliminate or abolish others' karmic responsibilities. Maybe this will be Addressed in more detail within the last Series of Discourses.

You Know that I Am One Who when given a task will be the first to come forward and offer my Services, but you will also Know that when I doubt the validity of my own choices in making decisions as to what needs to be done and what can be done, are two different things. I see so much that needs to be done as I have pointed out in all the Proposals, but as has been explained, not all of them are straight forward and many still have to be given time and space to unfold within a more defined karmic unfolding. So, I guess I am asking which of the Proposals, can be engaged now, and if any, in what specific Order?

I could make blanket Activations, Invocations and Decrees, but again do they need to be specific and Individualized Alignments for Focus. This has yet to be defined! Beloved Helios confused me a little or should I say placed me within this questionable state again, regarding all these Proposed clearings and healings, and if I can use as a single example here, regarding the dark masters, how should I respond? He said in His last Discourse;

What is really being asked for, and shall put this firmly within the hands of Enlightened Christed Ones to deal with, just like Satan was relieved of His Duty through Love and Blessings of an unascended human Soul, so can all the masters of dark be relieved of their undertakings within this Evolutionary Cycle; untethered and removed from this Solar System. But beware Dear Ones, the correct processes must be admonished and although We will be Over Lighting such procedures, you as representatives of humanity will have to face head on, these demonic presences. To do that, Your I Am Presences must be fully empowered with your Divine Sovereignty. And without this, your Sovereignty will be challenged most fervently, as Peter can give witness to from past encounters of demonic presence!

Even this task, which, if I engaged in this immediately, would it make any difference or have any consequences? Because I have already had experiences of this and I would most definitely engage Archangel Lucifer and Michael, if I could find another like-minded Soul, at the very least, could I do this NOW? I see this need for humanity, from my unascended point of view, but is this a judgment on my part? Is Helios saying 'yes Peter get on with it, We Are Waiting'? I Only wish to Serve at the Highest Levels and I only wish to Be the very best I Can

Be! And so to act prematurely or without the correct alignment and support from You Guys, then I would indeed hesitate, for that is my own admonishment for myself? 'If in doubt do naught'!

So, if I was to use this example in every account for each Proposal that will be given permission to act upon in due course, then how would this be presented to me/us by You, this Council? In other words, would we be given a very strict and guiding Schedule as to what could or could not be acted upon from our unascended positions of engagement, while held within the New Christ Council Formations? I really need these questions answered for me at some time please?

Another point that I would like to receive comment upon, is that in the short time that I have begun to share some of the information of the Elemental Grace Alliance, I have as yet not really had much response from anyone who would like to be a part of the Project with a Soul Commitment to it! I have had several positive comments that showed interest in the concept, but as yet still no offer has come forth with committed assistance. Not that that is a problem for I will go alone if necessary, but as We saw at the beginning of the Elemental Grace Alliance Invitation to participate, it just seems a little strange to me! Is it so far outside of people's comfort zone that the desperation that is being experienced through outside influences within them, that continues to keep this away from people's awareness and Inner Desire for change. I see the Truth within The Elemental Grace Alliance, but am curious as to why no-one that has seen it to date, sees the potentials here in the same way as I do?

Desperation for change can indeed blindfold those who cannot see past the focus of change. But for the Elemental Grace Alliance, I see that there will come, through the Soul Attribute of Trust, of just Being, rather, than being any part of any informative regime or need to act any more. What do I mean by this? It was Archangel Gabriel, I believe who said through Meline Portia Lafont;

You might consider taking measures against actions, but have you ever come to the consideration of desperation being the drive behind this all? For desperation has become the action into form and it leads all of the world beyond consideration. When desperation comes to life it is a signal of the last battles being overshadowed by Light. What one wants to have control over is a form of desperation as well. Desperate to be and to hold that which once was and now is not anymore through the changes that come about as you all step into a new realm of time out of the illusion. For that is what it is right now, standing in the midst of desperation to hold on to something that is becoming brand new in its expression and wave of being. You move from desperation into information and from information to a source of intelligence. When that source of intelligence is sufficient enough to hold new frequencies of embodiment you shall cease to exist in the world of intelligence, rather unfold yourself into the embodiment of Trust and Being. For information is only a possible solution to questions and problems that arise. But seeing and stepping beyond that information is coming into the unfoldment of Trust and Being all units merging and celebrating the unity of all things in life.

Are people so caught up in their own desperations for their desires to change, rather than just Trusting that all is unfolding exactly as it should? Are those reading this information, finding that it is too far beyond any reasonable possibility, let alone potential just yet, and therefore see it as an invasion that separates, due to too great a change being asked for, that will be outside of their comfort zones? If this is true then what is the chance in the short term to finding Members to a Christ Council whose requirements for holding a Seat will stretch even farther outside the old human paradigms of both family, normal life, and environmental engagements?

I see this for myself as part of the problem, for as Shekinah began to explain, action is required at a point where information is available to follow, but after that, Just Being is required when Absolute Trust and Truth comes from Internal Knowingness rather than external information that is used for explanation. I know that the Christ Councils will come from Being, rather than action and so this really needs to be defined in a much Greater Expression for Clarity and Understanding. I see the Elemental Grace Alliance, at least from a Christed Being, or a very High Resonant human being, will Become the Unified Consciousness of the All That Is here on Earth. For the purpose of explaining myself a little better here, I shall share what I see as Trust and Truth so as to Be. Feel free to add or subtract as you deem in Your Own Wisdom!

‘Trust’ is the foundation for all the other attributes: Truth, Honesty, Tolerance, Gentleness, Joy, Defenselessness, Generosity, Patience, Faithfulness and Open-Mindedness. Once you have attained Trust then the rest will follow naturally and without effort. Trust is the part of man that few are consciously aware is not governed by the Laws of the world and man. Trust is inherent in us all and has its perception within this world as having to be learnt. Trust is reliant on Confidence in Knowing the Truth. What is Truth? Are we talking here of the truth which man falsely perceives as being true according to his belief systems or Truth in accordance to the Laws of Creation and God? Man’s truth is based on misperceptions with its origins based on personal power, personal dominance and personal material wealth.

What is the constant underlying truth in this world where truth for one is different to the truth for another? Two or more truths, how can this be true? You must have one Truth or another, it is impossible to have more than one Truth without being confused and uncertain of your Trust. As I am discussing Divine Characteristics, let me then base my perception here on the ‘Truth’ relevant to God’s Laws and His Creations. When one Trusts, he does so with a Knowing that only good can come from his action to Trust. If he is Trustworthy then he will only act for the purpose of sharing and extending God’s Love. A Trusting person is nonjudgmental and sees good in everyone regardless of their race, colour or creed; regardless of their actions, words, decisions or circumstances. He or she is a Forgiving person full of Compassion always willing to lend a hand without expectation of anything in return. For he or she knows that to Give, he or she then receives, and that the reverse is simply not possible.

To understand what Trust is, the use of this simile will provide an image so one may grasp it more easily. Imagine that you are standing on the edge of a platform which is placed below the clouds. The uniqueness of this platform is that it is upside down because in this imaginary situation, gravity as you know it is in reverse. This can be related symbolically in your logical mind and the lessons we have yet to learn regarding the undoing of all our old belief patterns, so we may in turn find who we are on our 'journey to be'.

So, you are standing on the edge of the platform, gravity is reversed, and as you look down (up) all you can see are the clouds. You know of no safety nets, your legs are not tied by a rubber bungee rope which will break your fall, you know nothing of the other side of the clouds. Now to demonstrate Trust, allowing you to sense its feeling, would you jump? Your decision will indicate your understanding of Trust. If you couldn't jump, then there are lots to learn yet. If you can jump, there is also lots to learn yet, but as least you have now shown willingness. Now jump anyway! What are your feelings? The exhilaration is immense and the fear of the unknown will have your heart pounding outside of your chest.

This is a quantum leap which can only be undertaken without plans or any preparations. How can you know anything about the other side; the vast openness of the Universe where no limitations apply and no boundaries exist? You must jump without a thought of its implications or consequences but simply in the knowing that you will be safe. To jump then shows Trust and the willingness to accept whatever comes. It shows Confidence and Faith. We must Trust Life and not be afraid of loss or lack within it. Once Innocence has returned to the Heart and our fears have been eliminated, the bridge between ourselves and God is completed. Recognize that the only things that can be taken from us are those things which are temporary or that which can be lost, broken down or destroyed. These are the illusions of the material world and have nothing of value other than their gifts of learning. So why would you Trust anything that is of the material world that is worthless?

Trust is a strength which comes from a Source which is outside of the self and once experienced it is impossible to consider that the self has any power to act correctly at all. Trust is a Knowing, that we are not who we seem to be, that our Power is in us but not of us. Perfect Comfort and Inner Peace can only come from a Perfect Trust, but Perfect Trust can only be achieved through correct discernment as to Who You Are without the distortions, confusions, conflicts and obstacles which are placed in our way via our ego or logical mind. Trust has a Power that will solve every problem, every disorder, every wrong doing, every mistake, every illness and sickness.

Trust is the Principle which establishes the Miracle, for without Trust, a Miracle cannot occur. The True Essence of a Miracle is the Faith and Trust we have in what appears to be the impossible and the Miracle helps us to remember that our Beingness is not limited to the restrictions imposed upon us by the beliefs that we are only of this material world. All success is based on Knowledge, Understanding, Faith, Truth and Trust. Your success is God's Vision for us and we will all be successful when we discover these Seeds of Trust.

I can see in writing this that I am actually answering my own concerns and realigning my wavering mind that has been allowed to surface within my Address, and how when we just Let Go and Trust the answer comes in by Just Being Ourselves! I Trust that All Will unfold according to God's Will, so indeed within the interim, I Will continue with My Faith that God's Design Will Be Victorious and that my part will Be of the Service that God has asked of me.

With this I shall now return to my Seat and ask the next Speaker to come forward. In God We Trust! I Am Peter Melchizedek. Bless You for your Patience, Love and Understanding! Amen!"

Today is the 22nd November and I have been expecting Beloved Lord Melchizedek to begin His Address as I have felt His Energies around me all day. I knew that Melchizedek was coming, over a week ago, even before Shekinah brought that information through a few days ago. Sue, after her trip to Seattle brought back a beautiful Emerald Green Andara Crystal as an Amulet hung around her neck and that took me back to Kauai in Hawaii, where I had some magical experiences with Andaras and Lady Nellie, a Medicine Woman, who was the Keeper of the Andaras Crystals after they were discovered by her in 1967 on their 1200 acres of land owned by the Choctaw People of Native America. This is another long story and one that I do not have the space to share here, but the point that I am raising, is that I believe my connection to the these very rare Crystals and the Grounding of the Christ Consciousness upon the planet, which I was very much a part of in my visit to Kauai in June/July of 2006.

With all this Emerald Green resurfacing in my life at this most auspicious moment is not by coincidence, so I am paying very close attention now. I am sensing that Thoth is present also and just a hour ago, I was led to some information which I was not aware of, although I was aware of the channeller, whom I have on several occasions meant to connect with, upon my journeys, especially while I was on Kauai for those 5 weeks of time. I have just visited Maia's website and found this text which I am being asked to include here in anticipation of Lord Melchizedek's Address. I am being told that by reading this first, it will give a greater scope of understanding to His Message and the formation and gatherings of the Prescribed Christ Councils, being spoken of here within the Elemental Grace Alliance. So, I present this here with expressed permission by Maia, as part of an excerpt taken from;

The Mystery of Mazzaroth

The 12 Zodiacal Thrones on the Threshold to Higher Worlds

By Simeon and Maia (Kyi'Ra) Nartoomid of

<http://newEarthstar.org/>

The Mystery of Mazzaroth

Shortly after returning from our Sacred journey in the Middle East, I (Simeon) had a dream vision in which there was a large metallic disc. I was told that this device was called the Orstellae Imgrapha. The disc had a light on its surface that made it shimmer in iridescence somewhat like a modern-day CD disc. As I focused in upon the Orstellae Imgrapha, I saw that it had concentric rings engraved upon it, and that it was a bronze type of metal of some sort. Each concentric ring was divided into a myriad of small squares in a 'brick-like' pattern, in which there was placed a symbol or set of symbols. I could see that the disc was mounted on a stand that allowed it to be moved like a telescope and pointed at different parts of the Heavens. I then saw an arrangement of very large nicely shaped and fitted stone blocks in a particular arrangement. I knew that these blocks were part of the Temple Structure which housed the Orstellae Imgrapha. The Temple Structure itself was constructed so that it set up a geometric Field of Resonance with the 44:44 Stargate.

I knew that the Orstellae Imgrapha was used to 'collect' Stellar Energies from the various Constellations of the Zodiac during the time of the year when the influence of that Constellation was most prominent (i.e. the energy of the constellation of Leo was collected during the time of Leo).

Thoth: The Starlight was collected like dew that settled upon a vine and was then focused into the Sacred Chamber in which darkness reigned. Darkness reigned in this Chamber except for the Points of Light which penetrated the veil of the Tabernacle of the Dark Queen (a very ancient name for the Womb of Creation). The Greater Work being accomplished in this Ancient Mystery School Temple, which Thoth now tells us was the Temple of Senna at Mt. Sinai, involved taking the Stellar Energies of the twelve Zodiacal Points.

The Mazzaroth Defined

The Zodiac itself is NOT in and of itself the Mazzaroth, but rather there are 'twelve threshold control' points, one associated with each Zodiacal sign, that the Brotherhood of Light can use to modulate and govern consciousness factors in the Worlds that fall under the auspices of the 12 Signs of the Zodiac. This is done to help those Worlds in their evolutionary processes and return to Source. There are twelve Cycles of Evolution for any Planetary World under the influences of the Mazzarothic thresholds. There is an Alpha (beginning) and Omega (end) to the overall evolutionary trajectory for that world.

These control points are set into the evolutionary Divine Plan for Planetary Worlds within the archetypal Light imaging programmed into the twelve 'threshold control points' of the Mazzaroth. The Worlds of Mazzaroth exist within the 'lower heavens', the regions of the known Zodiac. There are many Higher Light Worlds which exist beyond the confines of the Mazzaroth, in what Thoth refers to as the Mazaloth. There are many Master Beings working on behalf of the evolution of Planet Earth under Hierarchical Directives from even Higher Stations of Light within the Realm of Mazaloth. They Serve as a sentient connection between the Worlds of the Higher Heavens, and the Worlds of the lower heavens. According to Thoth, Earth's Planetary consciousness currently falls into the lower heavens region and will be transported to experience within the Higher Heavens during the Ascension of this planet.

Thoth gives us a further definition of both Mazzaroth and Mazaloth:

Thoth: The Mazzaroth is the 'pattern of integrity' which circumscribes the path of Karmic Resolution within the current geometric vehicle of the Earth's Merkabah. The Mazaloth is the unfolding of Star Fields into Greater and Greater thresholds of Divine Formation within this Universe, which is accomplished through Key Manifolds maintained within the Stars of the visible spectrum. 'Mazzaroth' is the Cosmic Vehicle to transcend the 'dark space', while 'Mazaloth' is the 'Light Foundation' of the Greater Universe. We are currently being called upon to prepare ourselves to receive the Greater Mantle of Christic Consciousness through the efforts of the many beings who are assisting us from a Higher Evolutionary perspective.

It is this Greater Spiritual Power which is the key to being able to freely come and go from this Dimension of reality for the Greater Work at hand, and ultimately for the Ascension. The actual passage to and from this Dimension, is accomplished through application of this Greater Power to 'open' the twelve 'Time Gates' or 'Thrones' held within the Twelve Signs of the Zodiac, and this is accomplished from the Grids of Energy that are in even Higher Dimensional Experience than that of the Mazzaroth: the Mazaloth.

There is a direct correlation between the human, Earthen and Stellar 'Body Programs.' The Twelve Signs of the Zodiac, the twelve main meridians within the Earth, and the human body, are Key Focal Points for the Higher Beings of Light to bring all of these components into a true alignment in order that the Ascension may truly occur.

It is directly through the 12 Crystalline Channels of the Earth, that the human being can be 're-programmed' via the Higher, and yet intermediary, Energy System of the Mazzaroth, to be able to assimilate the Energy and Consciousness changes taking place on Earth, so that the human species can continue to evolve with the Higher Programs of Light rather than perish. This is a direct Act of Grace and Compassion towards humanity on the part of the Higher Beings of Light.

Even before the Ascension of Planet Earth, there will be children born or who arrive there, who are already under the influence of the next major Evolutionary Cycle, the Mazaloth, they will become a Powerful Transformative Force unto themselves, as they pour forth the benefit of their Spiritual Gifts upon humanity straight from the Father's Kingdom.

These children will be harbingers of the Christ which will incarnate into every Soul who has adequately Spiritually prepared itself, and they will be especially helpful in re-activating the 'dormant seed', that latent set of codes within humanity's DNA memory which holds the original Patterns of Light as their Highest Service to this world. The Power of the Higher Evolutionary Worlds is such that a variety of specie forms can be generated biochemically through some very high meta-scientific Principles, but that so long as these specie forms are aligned to the Divine Matrix, or the Cosmic Christ, there exists a transcendence of the differences in forms and appearances through the Unity that exists in God's Greater Kingdom.

Simeon: There is a direct correlation between the Greater Template the Mazzaroth represents, and the re-development of the 12 strand DNA. Thoht tells us that the etheric counterpart for that 12 strand DNA will form, then the physical components will begin formation, and then finally humanity will begin to assimilate the consciousness it represents. Once this process is complete, the Souls who have been a part of this Greater process through proper Spiritual preparation, will be able to move into the more complex consciousness Expression of the Higher Worlds of the Mazaloth.

Thoht tells us that when the Planet Earth goes through its Ascension, it will leave the Realm of the Mazzaroth and enter the early stages of Realizing the Consciousness of the Mazaloth. The New Earth Planetary Consciousness will not fully Realize the Programs of Light available in the Realm of Mazaloth, however, until after it completes the New Cycle which begins with the Ascension.

The Tribe of Judah, and consequently the Sign of Leo (the Lion), hold a Key Dynamic in the Ascension of Planet Earth. In the 'Keys of Enoch: The Book of Knowledge' by J.J. Hurtak, page 231, there is a listing of the 12 Tribes of Israel. Alongside this listing are given 3 numeric figures:

1) The numeric given in the Scroll of Numbers in the Bible which correlates to that Tribe (the population allotted to that Tribe's 'army');

2) The angle it represents in the 360-degree expanse of the Heavens;

3) The angle's geometric sine function. The mathematical calculations involving the correlations between the Book of Numbers and the angles within the Tribes and the Great Pyramid are fairly well known within the work of pyramidologists. The Tribe of Judah has the angle calculated at 44.49672769 degrees! Two things are quite correlative here:

1) Thoth has told us the 44:44 Stargate is the Stargate of Ascension, and the figure 44 is very close indeed to the numeric angle of Judah, calculated from the numbers given in the Bible;

2) If one numerologically reduces the full number given ( $4+4+4+9+6+7+2+7+6+9$ ), you arrive at 58, which further reduces to 13 ( $5+8=13$ ). The number 13 is that of the Mazaloth, and by default the Christic Consciousness as well. Thoth has also revealed to us in the past, that the Constellation of Leo is the access Portal to the Golden Star of Mazuriel, which is not visible in our Dimension of reality. Mazuriel is the threshold for the future Consciousness of the Earth which hails from the Mazaloth, all of which again, resonate to 13.

Numbers 2:9 (Lamsa Bible) *9 The total number of the camp of Judah was one hundred and eighty-six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. They shall march first.* The speed of light is rounded at 186,400 miles per second! What is being indicated here within the Bible, is that the Tribe of Judah (Sign of Leo) is the key to accelerating consciousness to the speed of Light, which is in turn the 'flash' point for 'Ascension Earth'.

Genesis 49:9-10 (Lamsa Bible) *9 Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, you are gone up; he stooped down, he crouched as a lion, and as a young lion; who shall rouse him? 10. The Scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Lawgiver from between his feet, until the coming of the One to whom the Scepter belongs (Messiah), to whom the Gentiles shall look forward.* These verses indicate Judah is an offspring (whelp) of the Lion. The Tribe of Judah is born of the Zodiacal Sign of Leo, and the inherent Solar Consciousness Codes that are programmed into that Mazzarothic Throne. Judah shall maintain the "Scepter," the Staff or Mandate of Spiritual Law and Power, until the coming of the Messiah. In other words, Judah holds the Balance for the Mazzarothic Worlds until they have been liberated by the Christic Deliverance from the defiled half-Light codes of darkness.

In addition, the Lion symbology present in these verses, as you will remember, is correlative to the statue named the Guardian of Mazzaroth. A bit later in this article, we will see how this lion symbology, the constellation Leo, and the Mystery of Mazzaroth are intimately interconnected. It is important to understand that the 12 Tribes of Israel each have a Zodiacal correlative, and that the tribal component is the vibratory para-genetic / genetic grid which corresponds to the equivalent Zodiacal Sign and Facet of the Mazzaroth. In other words, relative to this article, the Tribe of Judah which represents love, praise and heart, is a direct Spiritual para-genetic of the Spiritual Consciousness Patterning held within the Template of the Zodiacal Constellation of Leo.

The Hierarchy of Leo, the Lords of Flame, are those Divine Angelic Beings which are acting as 'midway' Stations of Light for this aspect of the One God, the Universal Heart. They in turn project this Consciousness Patterning into the Worlds of trapped Light, such as Earth, that we may access this Consciousness and integrate its Codes into our DNA through acts of Spiritual Compassion and Unconditional Love, thus setting the Light of the Christic Consciousness free within our cells, our Hearts, our Minds and our Souls. The Great Pyramid at Giza contains specific Geometric and Numeric Encoding via its Design Measurements, which show the meta-scientific relationships between the Twelve Tribes of Israel and the Mazzaroth. The measurement proportions also represent the Higher Light Mathematics involved in the Unification of the Twelve Signs of the Zodiac and their subsequent Linkage to the Greater Cosmology of the Higher Worlds of the Mazaloth.

Toth indicates that within the Great Pyramid is a chamber which he calls the Middin Chamber. He says the Middin Chamber is quite small, much smaller than the King's and Queen's Chambers. This chamber manifests an Energy Dynamic referred to as the 'Chamber of the Son' in 'The Keys of Enoch: The Book of Knowledge' by J.J. Hurtak.

The Unification of the Consciousness represented in the Twelve Signs of the Zodiac, and the subsequent Linkage of that Unified Consciousness to the Higher Worlds of Mazaloth, will occur when the 'Tribe of Judah', is astro-physically and Vibrationally aligned with the Great Pyramid through the Middin Chamber. Judah actually represents a Key geometric function (cosine) of the relationships between all the Tribes, or Twelve Zodiacal / genetic / para-genetic movements in the lesser heavens.

There will be a specific astro-physical alignment at some point in the future, whereby the Angles and Geometry of Judah, will be aligned once again through the Middin Chamber in the Great Pyramid. The Middin Chamber works in Resonance with the Eye of Horus, which also correlates to the recent Sacred Initiatic Journey we discuss within this issue, in that it was named the 'Path of Horus' and worked in and through the Eye of Horus as a portal through the Mazzaroth to access Stellar coordinates of Higher Christic Consciousness.

When the final alignment occurs, it will result in a major and final Alignment of the Earth's Consciousness to that of the Christ which hails from the Mazaloth.

Isaiah 19:19-20. 19 - In that day there shall be an Altar to the Lord in the midst of the Land of Egypt, and a Pillar at the border thereof to the Lord. 20 - And it shall be for a Sign and for a witness unto the Lord of Hosts in the Land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the Lord because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a Savior, and a Great One, and He shall Deliver them. Toth indicates that both the Altar and the Pillar in the above passage are represented by the Great Pyramid as follows.

Toth: This corresponds to a specific two-fold dynamic of the Great Pyramid. The Altar function is the pyramid in its receptive dynamic, and which is seen to be in the "midst of the Land of Egypt.” This particular function also signifies the ‘esoteric Wisdom’ Encoded into the structure. The Pillar function is the Pole of Germination which transfers Higher Intelligence from the Greater Cosmos to “the border thereof” (i.e. the border of the Altar in Egypt); the border representing the point of interface between Heaven and Earth, which in this case is essentially the outer structure of the Great Pyramid, with the Altar being contained within it.

What Thoth is essentially saying here, is that the outer structure of the Great Pyramid itself is the Pillar which is at the ‘border’ of the Altar. The altar is the esoteric knowledge which is encoded within the pyramid Thus it is prophesied in Isaiah 19:19-20, that when the Middin Chamber Dynamic is triggered within the Great Pyramid by the Greater Stellar Alignments to come, the Consciousness of the Cosmic Christ will pour through the veil, or interface zone, between Heaven and Earth liberating the Planetary Consciousness from the limited half-Light codes of the fallen hierarchy.

Revelation 5:1-5 (Lamsa Bible) 1 - And I saw on the right hand of him who sat on the throne a book, written within and on the back and sealed with seven seals. 2 - Then I saw a Mighty Angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book and to loose the seals thereof? 3 - And no man in heaven above nor on Earth neither under the Earth was able to open the book, neither to look on it. 4 - And I wept exceedingly because no man was found worthy to open the book, nor to look on it. 5 - And one of the Elders said to me, Weep not; behold the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Scion of David, has prevailed and he will open the book and the seven seals thereof.

In verses 1-5 we have one of the most Sacred Inner Mysteries revealed; that of the Seven Seals and their relationship to Greater Divine Program of Light Redemption. What is being said here, is that the Eternal Program or Scrolls of the Father are Projected in a reverse image into Creation. The Scrolls are Themselves Representative of the Seven Levels of Consciousness (The Seven Rays) that have to be completed before this world may graduate and go on to Higher Levels of experience.

These Seven Levels of Consciousness are correlative to the Seven Chakras of the human body, the Seven Chakras of the Planet Earth, and the Seals are placed between these Fields of Consciousness and the Higher Emanations of the Seven Rays being Projected from the Stations of Light under Authority of the Godhead. According to Thoth, the Seven Seals were placed by the Lord Metatron (Heb. El Shaddai) upon the Seven Levels of Consciousness so that no human could penetrate the upper threshold through sheer lower will power (the 666 dynamic).

When the Planetary Consciousness has reached a certain level of Christic Realization, only then will the Seals be re-opened allowing passage for the many Children of God into the Higher Worlds of the Mazaloth. So St. John saw this Reality in his vision revealed in Revelation 5:4, and wept for the many basically good, but lesser evolved Souls, who might be lost to the darker Universal Forces of entropy should the Earth’s Planetary Consciousness not be elevated to a High enough degree whereby the Seven Seals could be re-opened.

The “Lion of the Tribe of Judah” is symbolic of the Consciousness of the Greater Christic Solar Logos, which will find its Register upon the Planetary Consciousness through the Portal Judah / Leo holds in the 12 Thrones of the Mazzaroth. Here we have an inferred reference to the two Solar Logoi of the Earth in verse 5.

We refer you to the article, this issue ‘The Gate of the Sun, the Solar Logos & the Lion’ for a comprehensive discussion on the Nature of the two Solar Logoi themselves, which is important to the understanding of this article, but is outside the scope of it.

Outside the context of the two Solar Logoi, verses 1-5 are telling us that the Tribe of Judah holds the biological, geophysical and Higher Intelligence Codes necessary to the Christic Infusion of the Earth. The para-genetic Codes represented in the Tribe of Judah, are being held and expressed by a grouping of beings, both in the Higher Dimensions of Reality, and on Earth. Any being that is able to hold that specific Consciousness Frequency to a High enough Degree, is by default One of the para-genetic ‘keepers’ for the Tribe of Judah. However, there are specific Inner Planes Orders that are also Commissioned to be ‘Keepers’ of these para-genetic Codes. It is through these Groupings of Beings that a way is being prepared for the New Teachings, the Scrolls of Higher Light, to reach this world from the Higher Heavens.

This New Expression of Light and Consciousness has already been Seeded within the old Planetary Realm in eons long past. In other words, these Higher Consciousness Codes were inherent in the Creation in the first place, but we have become separated from them through the ‘fall.’ Thoth tells us that the Earth’s original Consciousness Patterning was formed within the Blue Star Rigel in Orion.

It was only after certain Cosmic Events had transpired that the Earth’s newly birthed Consciousness was relocated to the current Solar System we know as home. This was the beginning of the ‘lesser Solar paradigm’, the astronomy of our physical Sun, which now the Tribe of Judah opens the Path of Exodus out of, and back to the Earth’s home in the Stars within the Orion System as a part of the Blue Star Rigel’s Nest of Planets.

The Lion will become a new archetypal symbol, representative of the new patterning that the next, or Greater Solar Logos, will embrace the Earth with. So, it is the Christ (the Higher Symbology of the Lion) which ultimately will penetrate this old limited cosmology through the Portal held by the Tribe of Judah within the Constellation of Leo, to bring us into an Expression of the Collective Messiahship, a Manifestation of the Christ within. This means that for those Souls who endeavor Spiritually to prepare themselves in accordance with the Higher Teachings brought to this world by Jesus and the other Masters; the Christ will be birthed within them, that they may emulate the Spiritual Consciousness that the Christ came to demonstrate as our Ultimate Heritage.

The Universe is made of numerous different possible Reality Systems that are all a part of the Divine Plan, the ‘many Mansions’ of the Father’s Kingdom. Once we have opened our Hearts, Minds, Souls and Cells to the possibility that something much Greater than we could have ever imagined exists, what we need to do then, is truly understand and integrate the Higher Consciousness which is the Essence of that Greater Reality.

This will in turn allow us to move beyond the current fractured time continuum we are currently encapsulated within, to be able to experience other time continuums of Reality, to interact and commune with other Beings of Light, the Angelics, the Archangelics, the Masters of Light, who are not limited to one time continuum Themselves, but are able to freely move amongst the various continuum, or Mansions of the Greater Kingdom.

There is a biochemical change that must occur so that our physical bodies, which are the host to Our Soul and Spirit, must receive new DNA Codings to be able to operate in this Multidimensional State of Existence while we are still physically embodied. As it stands now, we are held under the limitations of the lesser Solar paradigm, which has been the primary threshold for the genetic programs on Earth for some time.

We as Divinity in human form, still contain the dormant genetic Codes which were once prevalent on this planet before the 'fall.' As we begin to awaken our Minds to the Higher Levels of Awareness, we start to re-activate these dormant genetic Codes, and as they activate they begin to start a process of biochemical change, or mutation within our bodies, so that the physical form of Our Temple may be prepared to receive the 'Second Coming' of the Christ, within Our Very Own Hearts. The 12-fold genetic information inherent in the Mazzaroth is actually encoded into our physical forms, and thus can be used to synchronize the Greater Mandates of Spirit with the physical existence. The Mazzarothic Thrones contain a significant portion of the Divine Blueprint for the Ultimate Expression of Divinity in this type of a World System, and yet we must not only come to Realization of that potential, we must go beyond that into the Heart of the Christos (Mazaloth), the Cosmic Christ, the Greater Solar Logos, the Golden Star of Mazuriel.

The mental programming of humanity must be brought to a Higher Level of Realization, so that it can be given the Astrophysical Codes and Keys which will allow man to move beyond the time continuum we are currently trapped within. These Codes and Keys are Stellar in Origin and encompass the Realm of Mazaloth and Beyond. The Brotherhood of Light Acts as a transduction medium between the Reality of Worlds within the mandates of the Mazzaroth, and those Higher Stellar Worlds of Mazaloth. In this way they can assist these lesser Worlds in completion of their Evolutionary Cycles. The Elohim Creator Beings play an important role in this transduction process. They are overseeing the Transmission of these Higher Level Stellar Light Codes into the Mazzarothic Worlds.

They Monitor and adjust the Incoming Light Transmissions so that the Creation moves through its critical Evolutionary Thresholds of 'Rings Passeth Not' as rapidly and smoothly as possible. Through the assistance of these Beings and the Angelics, it is possible for every Soul who aligns themselves to the Higher Principles of Grace, to be reborn in Spirit and to be embraced by the Higher Covenant. These Higher Beings are working to help free the Souls of the Earth from their Stellar imprisonment. So Great is Their Love for humanity that They have watched and waited throughout the history of the Earth for the time when They could once again reach us, their Brothers and Sisters of the Stars, and help us to find our way back to the Greater Light of the Christ, through which we may be given a Virgin Birth, a karmic Absolution, a Dispensation of Grace from the Throne of the Eternal Directly.

So now let us return to the concept of the 'Guardian of Mazzaroth.' We now have just emerged from quite a journey into the meaning of Mazzaroth itself, but just what is the function of the 'Guardian', and how does that link to this thread of Mystery School work we started following in the beginning of this article?

As you hopefully remember, we started following a thread that begins in the Temple of Senna, where the Orstellae Imgrapha was located. This was the work of the Brotherhood of Light that were embodied on the Earth at that time. The work consists of opening and maintaining Pathways between: the Earth's Crystalline Grid; the genetic information of the Earth; the Mazzaroth, or Interfacing Stations of Light between our reality and the Higher Worlds; and ultimately the Mazaloth, which is the Realm of the more complex Star Realms of Consciousness. Many of the Higher Level Initiations practiced over time worked directly with this same Hierarchical Principle.

It is thus that the time before the 'fall' (1st millennium), the time between the fall and the Ascension (the 2nd millennium), and the future or time after the Ascension (the 3rd millennium) which Thoth calls the New Earth Star, may all be interconnected through our current experience, the closing of the Grand Cosmic Circle; or more appropriately, the closing of one more turn on the Cosmic Spiral. So, we can see that this Higher Level Cosmic Alignment Work, in conjunction with the Initiations into the deeper Aspects of the Consciousness which this type of work makes more readily accessible, allows an individual to work themselves into a Position of Synchronization with the Higher Force Fields of Intelligent Love and Light, and as a Planetary Service for all of humanity to embody that Higher Christic Consciousness to the Highest Degree possible.

The Guardian of Mazzaroth

The Guardian of Mazzaroth is both the Guardian and the Messenger of the New Christed Age, which Corinne Heline calls the 'New Galilee', when the present and the future come together in the Heart and Mind of humanity. The true 'Guardian of Mazzaroth' is a Morphi, an Etheric Being of Light created by the Archangels of Sagittarius (the 'Lords of Spiritualized Mind') to Guardian the Entrance Portals between the Mazzaroth and the Earth. Thus, we see the Spiritualized Higher Mind of the Hierarchy of Sagittarius as being the Consciousness which animates the 'Guardian', setting its Spiritual Presence in attendance for the reservation of the Mazzarothic thresholds. Sagittarius is a sign of transition and has transmutation as a Keynote. As this Sign sits between the 'dragon power' of Scorpio and the 'Christed Sun' of Capricorn, it represents the Power Center for the Great Work. The Biblical Key for Sagittarius is quoted from St. Paul:

Let this mind be in you which was also in the Christ Jesus.

In other words, the reference is to the Highly Spiritualized Mind which Sagittarius holds for the planet as a Hierarchical Presence, and which the Christed Jesus exemplified. Let's look a bit more closely at the Scorpio / Sagittarius / Capricorn dynamic in an effort to more completely comprehend the Heart-Mind dynamic heralded and guarded by the Guardian of Mazzaroth. Keep in mind as we explore this part of the 'Guardian' dynamic, that the Heart serves as a Cohesive Force or Link between the serpentine, magnetic (Goddess-Feminine) Energies of the Earth, and those of the Higher Mind (God-Christic-Masculine) of the Godhead. It is through the Heart that the 'Mystic Marriage' of God-Goddess, Christ-Earth, Mind-Matter, Fire-Water may occur within the individual.

Scorpio represents the 'Serpent Wisdom', the knowledge and Wisdom of the Earth, brought into fruition through the focused activity of the Spiritualized Mind represented in Sagittarius. Capricorn represents the Christic Power born within the Grail Cup (matter). Thus, we have the synergic interaction of these three Zodiacal consciousness archetypes setting the stage for the final infusion of the result of all this alchemy, which must be received through the Heart. It is the Hierarchy of the Zodiacal Sign of Leo (the Lords of Flame), which gives access to this Consciousness in a fiery delivery through the Heart Center of the Initiates who have adequately prepared themselves. Corinne Heline states that, 'it is the Lion's Paw (of Leo) that raises man to the status of superman'.

The truth in this statement is revealed within the Solar Mystery, in which the Initiate of the Sun must pass through the Fire of Leo as his / her lesser Nature is consumed in the flame. The Fire that emanates from Leo is the all-consuming ecstasy of the Heart when it is filled with the Higher Expression of Spirit. The Solar Initiate must be able to become an empty vessel, drained of all personal will and lower ego, in order to be filled with the Living Fire of the Divine issuing forth from the Lords of Flame. If the Initiate cannot first 'empty the cup', that Soul shall be consumed by the 'beast' of the lower emotions in the effort. Thus, the Guardian of Mazzaroth Individualized, is the Christic / Lion / Solar Consciousness Power Personified in the Soul. It is this Power which rises with the Sun (the Christic Logos) to become the all-consuming Flame of Higher Self, which devours the lesser elements of consciousness that impede the development of Spiritualized ego.

It is through the Spiritualized Mind of Sagittarius however, that the Guardian of Mazzaroth acts as a sentient link between the individual's Higher Self and the Thrones of the Mazzaroth for all individuals seeking to access the Mazzarothic Mystery. While these four Signs (Sagittarius, Scorpio, Capricorn and Leo) set the stage for the Guardian's Role on an Individual Initiatic Level, on a Universal Level the Essence of this Morphi Consciousness is inserted into each of the 12 Mazzarothic Stations of Light as a 'ring-pass-not', preventing mis-use of the Power of these Realms and preserving them as a future Stairway into the Mazaloth.

More closely examining the theme of the Balanced Male / Female Expression of the 'Guardian': it is esoterically depicted that the Christic Consciousness is a two-fold Expression upon the Earth, which shall be wedded in the Eternality of the Soul. The Cosmic Christ reaches forth into the half-Light (Oritronic-Luciferic) level of this planet in a two-fold Expression. One aspect of this Expression is in the 'passive' (feminine) modality, and the other is in the 'assertive' (masculine) modality. The attributes of these two Expressions (polarities) Love and Light, are witnessed in the administration of the Eucharistic Sacrament of Holy Communion via the 'Body' (feminine aspect) and 'Blood' (masculine aspect) of Christ. In this example the Body of Christ is inseminated or infused by the Blood of Christ, thus the androgynous Expression, which is complete unto itself.

When the Power of the female Oracle-Priestesses was taken from them in the Temples of Atlantis, so the Great Mother, the Christed Feminine, was cast from the Holy Places. Her Priestesses were forced to turn to the Earth as their sole 'Mother', if they desired to take upon them the Mantle of Spiritual Power which they once freely Expressed in the Atlantean Temples. Corinne Heline alludes to their plight and the true place of the feminine in the Christic Mysteries when she writes in her 'New Age Bible Interpretations, Old Testament, Volume II': 'The traditions which have come down to us from the early church fathers belong to the Atlantean Schools; hence the first Prophetess is rejected as such, for under Christ a New Regime is inaugurated in which it is the Prophetess, figured in Mary, who Prophesies of the world to come, and it is the Prophet, figured in Jesus, who Prophesies of the present world, of which He is the destined Ruler'.

The Guardian of Mazzaroth is ultimately a Symbol of Guardianship over the Sacred Alchemical Union or 'Mystic Marriage' of the two Primary Forces out pictured in the male and female polarities of the Earth. It is therefore also a symbol of the Christic 'Lion of God', that Righteous Warrior Aspect of the Soul, that rises up to preserve the Seed of Spiritual Purity in humanity, which can only be Redeemed through the Balance of Power being restored and maintained between the two Pillars (male and female) of the Temple. End of Excerpt.

I am so Grateful for this information and its permission to be included here, for it not only enlightens me further to my task, but also offers an even greater clarity of the direction we are heading. It is also so miraculously aligned to everything that has been shared up to now, and the Alliance to Grace and Shekinah of the Elohim and what He/She said in Their Address in this new Series of Discourses.

Yesterday I was speaking with Sue who is presently in Ireland doing some DNA encodement activation work and she mentioned Archangel Uriel. Our discussion on the phone came about because, at 2:15 pm yesterday I began to feel quite strange, in the middle of cooking lunch and from past experiences, I know this feeling only too well, and that it meant for me to find a bed or somewhere to lie down as soon as possible. I felt at the time that Sue was doing something in her workshop that was involving me and that I was beginning to receive an Energetic Transmission from and through her.

I went through a stage in my Spiritual development many years ago now where I had for three months running, 7 beds laid out throughout my home so that the moment I felt a transmission beginning, I could drop to the closest bed available. It was quite amusing and for those whom I told about it, saw me as a bit of a strange one. But as I was living on my own without much of any responsibilities to attend to, it was just what happened. God made room for me at that time, to go through these experiences. I am diversifying a little, sorry!

Anyway, three hours later I awoke. Having asked her later in the evening what was she doing at 2:15, she told me that she was working with Archangel Uriel and receiving a transmission for Him as encodements aligning the human chakras and DNA Encodements.

I had not yet read completely the excerpt above, and found, that for me anyway, there was a correlation to the name Mazuriel and Archangel Uriel. It had to do with the Seven Seals, so I paid attention and opened to see where it may lead. I have now become aware that Beloved Archangel Uriel and His Divine Consort Donna Grace would like to be the next Speaker after Lord Melchizedek.

So, I am so looking forward to that! But first I shall await Beloved Melchizedek to come forth at the most appropriate time. I have to go and collect Sue this afternoon, so my guess is tomorrow will be put aside for the next Transmission and Address. I also have to complete the final Step in the Cascadia Zone Activations for the Sun of Even Pressure Group, and time is getting on! Until tomorrow then!!
